

Good for your health.

- with plans that fit your life and individual needs -

Community Health Options has a selection of plans for 2018 to match your health needs and budget.

Good for your budget.

- with rates more competitive than ever -

When you compare health plans and check the details beyond the premium, you'll find that you and your employees get more for your money with Health Options.

Good for your business.

- with local service and online enrollment make it easy -

With Health Options, your premium dollars stay in Maine where friendly, local Member Service Associates are here to help you.

Call us today to learn more about how we can help you find the right Health Options plan for you.

Broker/Agent logo

(855) 624-6463 | HealthOptions.org